New Nukes
John Morgan, the carpenter, was out picking dew berries a day or two since and was a male witch by the way, because of feet being, or at least he jumped that high when he got on the ground. He was barely cleared it. That evening John was looking for men and guns to assist in exterminating the varmints.

This Bailliey.
It has been known for some time that a "dilly" was being erected in this county, but we had nothing about it. We were anxious that such a thing should exist in the county, nor would we mention it. We were not that we wanted to report those most concerned that they need expect no free advertising from this quarter—that we intended to foot them, as it were.

Sunday School Convention
Superintendents of each Sunday-school in this district attending the L. & N. railroad on the west. It is being held at the north, to Earlington on the south. There will be parallel lines from Madison and Randolph over to River on the east, will make a good one. At the same time, name and post office that we can confer together in order to make a better school celebration at Spring Lake Park, in Madisonville, on an early day.

John Hartz, District President.

The Masonic Tine.
The Masonic picnic last Friday was a success both socially and financially. While the crowd in attendance was not as large as in years, it was a success. The celebration, No. 84, F. & A. M. of this city, has become a matter of annual interest. It is being the fourth annual picnic. The proceeds, as advertised, will be used for the Home Lighthouse. This institution has noble workers in this loggia, who are anxious in their efforts to assist the widows and orphans of their departed brethren.
